Form 990, Part III, Line 4c - Program Service Accomplishments

In 2020-2021, the NYJL worked across several areas of community and training programming:

Adult Education and Mentoring: Working with organizations like the English-Speaking Union, the NYJL supports clients, from young adults to seniors, as they transition out of foster care, homelessness, rehabilitation programs, or the criminal justice system to forge a path to independent living by delivering life skills workshops, covering topics such as financial literacy, job search skills, and healthy meal preparation on a budget. As clients face economic hardships and health challenges and recover from traumatic events, NYJL volunteers help connect clients to resources and provide companionship.

Children's Education: NYJL volunteers create programs and tools to enhance the socio-emotional learning of children from under-resourced communities. Partnering with community-based organizations, such as Union Settlement, NYJL volunteers work with children of all ages to inspire a sense of curiosity and investigation and to foster educational aspirations through hands-on science and art activities, reading workshops, career exploration, and leadership development.

Child Health and Welfare programs work with children of all ages, as well as their families and caretakers, to demonstrate that challenging life circumstances provide opportunities to learn, grow, and persevere. Working with community partners like

Culture and the Arts: Partnering with organizations such as the Stanley M. Isaacs Neighborhood Center and P.S. 64, NYJL volunteers promote children's self-expression through arts education, an often undervalued and underfunded area of the public education system. Youth attend live musical and theatrical performances, visit cultural institutions and museums, create visual artworks for exhibition at a year-end art show, and perform in well-known theatrical productions.

City Impact: In response to community partners' urgent requests for support, the NYJL mobilizes volunteers for immediate, short-term service that helps community partners carry out their missions and meet their clients' immediate needs, including: tutoring students, delivering meals to homebound seniors, creating care packages for homeless women, or serving meals to guests struggling with food insecurity. Every year, the NYJL invests funds and volunteers' time in restoring public parks and community spaces to create welcoming environments conducive to fitness, health, recreation, and socialization.

Advocacy: The NYJL helps advocate for state and city policies impacting women, children, and families. The NYJL partners with Junior Leagues across New York state and local coalitions comprising community-based organizations and advocates.
